Your Love-Stars Date-Fax™ is a brief overview of your most basic relationship potentials based on the scientifically-proven principles of six-dimensional Magi Astrology.

Your Dating Potentials

True Love, Sex, & Attachment scores are on a scale of 1-10, 10 being strongest or best. Differences & Heartbreak scores are on a scale of 1-10, 10 being WORST.

TRUE LOVE: The potential for true, mutual love. True love potential is based on the planet Chiron.

SEX: Sexual Heat potential only, may not last forever. Being each other's physical type counts a lot - Sexual Heat potential will seem much lower to someone who isn't attracted. Sexual Potentials primarily use the sexual planets Venus, Mars, Pluto, and Juno.

ATTACHMENT: How attached the named person could become to the other person. Attachment is based on various planets and how these planets are captivated by Saturn and/or Saturn midpoints.

DIFFERENCES: Relative number and severity of key compatibility differences between you. Your Differences score reflects the number of Nuclear Clashes between you. Nuclear Clashes include some form of a clash between Saturn and Jupiter. Nuclear Clashes are one of the main deal-breaker clashes – it's usually the worst deal-breaker, even more than the Heartbreak Clash. But, there are 19 other possible clashes too. . .

HEARTBREAK: The likelihood of heartbreak for the named person. Heartbreak Clashes are based on some form of clash between Chiron and Saturn.

About Your Results

You may or may not have seen what you hoped to see in your Date-Fax. If you didn't get the answer you hoped for, I am sorry! Honesty is my policy, and that really does serve you best. You can only make a good decision based on the facts.

However, I believe in love and I believe in miracles! Your potentials for this relationship reflect likelihoods, not destinies. There is no absolute "written in stone" destiny for any person or relationship. This is a free-will Universe – every person in a situation has the free will to make choices which influence the outcome. What the proven principles of Science-Based Astrology can do very clearly however is indicate the ODDS of success versus failure.

Here's how these potentials most often work in combination:

Usually Safe - Green Light	Use Caution - Yellow Flags	Risky - Red Flags
It's usually safe to move forward when: True Love score is Avg. - High Attachment scores are similar Differences score is Low - Avg. Heartbreak scores are similar AND are Low - Avg.	Use caution when: True Love score is Low AND Sex score is High Attachment scores are not similar Differences score is Avg. to High Heartbreak scores are not similar	It's risky when: True Love score is Low AND Sex score is High Attachment scores are very different or both very High Differences score is High 1 or both Heartbreak scores are VERY High

Note: If you have high Differences Potential or 1 or both Heartbreak Potential scores are high, it's likely the relationship is risky.

Green Light Relationships

Relationships with the best potential for the long-term. They have a high True Love Score, average to high Sex Potential, average to high Attachment potentials, low Differences Potential, and low Heartbreak Potentials.

Yellow Flag Relationships

These relationships have medium or mixed potentials. These relationships have low True Love Potential with high Sex potential (which can mimic True Love for a while), average to high Differences, dissimilar Attachment Potentials and dissimilar Heartbreak Potentials. This can indicate some level of incompatibility. Also, one of you may not place the same importance on the relationship as the other, and your relative vulnerability to each other is not the same either.

Red Flag Relationships

Relationships with the most potential problems. Problem relationships have low True Love Potential with high Sex Potential (which can mimic True Love for a while), very high Differences, dissimilar Attachment Potentials or very high Attachment for both, and high Heartbreak Potential for 1 or both people. This can create the "Heaven and Hell" type rollercoaster relationship, with the Heaven drawing you back and the Hell pushing you away. These high-risk relationships are most dangerous when one person has both high Attachment and high Heartbreak Potentials.

Understand your Partner:

Your compatibility report will NOT change the other person's character. People will still behave according to their nature. It is entirely possible to have great relationship linkages with a sociopath, so it's also critical to know WHO you are dealing with.

Who is your partner? What does he/she want and need? Is he/she able to commit? A good person? Loving and affectionate? Honest and Ethical? Earning potential? What is she/he like sexually? Only after money? A user? A player? A heartbreaker?
